Sir,

With reference to the above, I am to inform you that, interpretation of statute (in your application, it is interpretation of provisions of Article 21 of the Constitution of India) and / or rendering opinion (in your application, it is opinion on judgment / order passed by Hon'ble Courts, opinion on violation of rights provided by the Constitution) etc., do not fall within the ambit of the RTI Act, 2005. Hence, no information could be provided to you and your application is rejected.

Further, the Public Authority and / or PIO under the RTI Act is not the appropriate forum to redress your grievance. It is also for your kind information that the PIO dispose of the RTI applications according to the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005 and the Rules made under the Gauhati High Court (RTI) Rules, 2008 . These applications are not placed before the Hon'ble Judge(s) even if the applicants addressed the Hon'ble Judge(s) in their RTI applications.

Kindly note that, under the RTI Act, information as it exists, only is to be provided.

An appeal against the above order, if preferred, may be made before the Registrar General / Appellate Authority, Gauhati High Court, Guwahati- 781001, under Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 and as per provision of Rule 7 of the Gauhati High Court (RTI) Rules, 2008, within thirty days from the receipt of this reply.

Yours faithfully
